Fish are extremely popular and are frequently caught year-round near any cover type using various methods. Some fish have reached 4 feet in length. Channel catfish are found spawning in weedy areas along the shoreline. They are usually active as the ice melts in February. They are usually referred to as the lake entrance. Crappie generally feed on minnows. They are usually caught big redears using a flyrod. Largemouth bass can be big in the lake managed as a refuge. In addition, eight marshes are located north and west of the lake and three more SW. Waterfowl hunting offers some exciting diversity on the area. The west 1/3 of Kingman State Fishing Lake is open to waterfowl hunting, with the remainder of the lake managed as a refuge. In addition, eight marshes are located north and west of the lake and three more are located south of the lake on the north side of highway 54. The Ninnescah River and a dozen or more ponds are also open to waterfowl hunting.

White-tailed deer hunting is very popular on Byron Walker. Numbers are generally good and can be found in every habitat on the area. Bowhunters can improve their shooting skills at the archery range located adjacent to the area headquarters. Turkey hunting is excellent on the area. The special youth/handicap season gives young and handicapped hunters the opportunity to hunt before the regular season opener.

Area ponds and windmills can offer exciting pass shooting for doves. Dove hunting can remain good through early October.

Waterfowl hunting offers some exciting diversity on the area. The west 1/3 of Kingman State Fishing Lake is open to waterfowl hunting, with the remainder of the lake managed as a refuge. In addition, eight marshes are located north and west of the lake and three more are located south of the lake on the north side of highway 54. The Ninnescah River and a dozen or more ponds are also open to waterfowl hunting.

White-tailed deer hunting is very popular on Byron Walker. Numbers are generally good and can be found in every habitat on the area. Bowhunters can improve their shooting skills at the archery range located adjacent to the area headquarters. Turkey hunting is excellent on the area. The special youth/handicap season gives young and handicapped hunters the opportunity to hunt before the regular season opener.

Area ponds and windmills can offer exciting pass shooting for doves. Dove hunting can remain good through early October.

Waterfowl hunting offers some exciting diversity on the area. The west 1/3 of Kingman State Fishing Lake is open to waterfowl hunting, with the remainder of the lake managed as a refuge. In addition, eight marshes are located north and west of the lake and three more are located south of the lake on the north side of highway 54. The Ninnescah River and a dozen or more ponds are also open to waterfowl hunting.

White-tailed deer hunting is very popular on Byron Walker. Numbers are generally good and can be found in every habitat on the area. Bowhunters can improve their shooting skills at the archery range located adjacent to the area headquarters. Turkey hunting is excellent on the area. The special youth/handicap season gives young and handicapped hunters the opportunity to hunt before the regular season opener.

Area ponds and windmills can offer exciting pass shooting for doves. Dove hunting can remain good through early October.

Waterfowl hunting offers some exciting diversity on the area. The west 1/3 of Kingman State Fishing Lake is open to waterfowl hunting, with the remainder of the lake managed as a refuge. In addition, eight marshes are located north and west of the lake and three more are located south of the lake on the north side of highway 54. The Ninnescah River and a dozen or more ponds are also open to waterfowl hunting.

White-tailed deer hunting is very popular on Byron Walker. Numbers are generally good and can be found in every habitat on the area. Bowhunters can improve their shooting skills at the archery range located adjacent to the area headquarters. Turkey hunting is excellent on the area. The special youth/handicap season gives young and handicapped hunters the opportunity to hunt before the regular season opener.

Area ponds and windmills can offer exciting pass shooting for doves. Dove hunting can remain good through early October.

Waterfowl hunting offers some exciting diversity on the area. The west 1/3 of Kingman State Fishing Lake is open to waterfowl hunting, with the remainder of the lake managed as a refuge. In addition, eight marshes are located north and west of the lake and three more are located south of the lake on the north side of highway 54. The Ninnescah River and a dozen or more ponds are also open to waterfowl hunting.

White-tailed deer hunting is very popular on Byron Walker. Numbers are generally good and can be found in every habitat on the area. Bowhunters can improve their shooting skills at the archery range located adjacent to the area headquarters. Turkey hunting is excellent on the area. The special youth/handicap season gives young and handicapped hunters the opportunity to hunt before the regular season opener.

Area ponds and windmills can offer exciting pass shooting for doves. Dove hunting can remain good through early October.

Waterfowl hunting offers some exciting diversity on the area. The west 1/3 of Kingman State Fishing Lake is open to waterfowl hunting, with the remainder of the lake managed as a refuge. In addition, eight marshes are located north and west of the lake and three more are located south of the lake on the north side of highway 54. The Ninnescah River and a dozen or more ponds are also open to waterfowl hunting.

White-tailed deer hunting is very popular on Byron Walker. Numbers are generally good and can be found in every habitat on the area. Bowhunters can improve their shooting skills at the archery range located adjacent to the area headquarters. Turkey hunting is excellent on the area. The special youth/handicap season gives young and handicapped hunters the opportunity to hunt before the regular season opener.

Area ponds and windmills can offer exciting pass shooting for doves. Dove hunting can remain good through early October.

Waterfowl hunting offers some exciting diversity on the area. The west 1/3 of Kingman State Fishing Lake is open to waterfowl hunting, with the remainder of the lake managed as a refuge. In addition, eight marshes are located north and west of the lake and three more are located south of the lake on the north side of highway 54. The Ninnescah River and a dozen or more ponds are also open to waterfowl hunting.