

As an employer, the State of Kansas is much more than you might expect.

Today's government workforce is diverse, customer-service oriented, innovative, flexible and full of great opportunities. Rewarding jobs abound in Kansas State government; where else can you go to find:

- Over 500 job types
- 115 agencies with unique missions
- Jobs located throughout the State
- Growth, advancement and development opportunities

Choose a career with abundant possibilities:

- Science – engineering, chemistry, nursing, geology, environmental, agricultural
- Human services – education, social work, juvenile justice
- Public safety – law enforcement, corrections, security
- Business – management, analysts, human resources, information technology, legal, accounting/finance, administrative support
- Trades, crafts and maintenance

Discover the benefits you're looking for:

- Medical, dental and vision coverage
- Investment options
- Flexible savings and spending accounts
- Retirement benefits
- Health, wellness and Employee Assistance Programs
- Stability and growth
- Work/Life balance
- Training and skills development
- Flexible work schedules
- Discounts at your favorite businesses

Make Big Things Happen
Apply at www.jobs.ks.gov