

GLEN ELDER

On the shores of the 13,000-acre Waconda Lake Glen Elder State Park offers unmatched recreational opportunities. With its rural setting, Glen Elder is a perfect place to relax.

Modern restroom/shower buildings are open in all campgrounds April-September. The Kanza shower building may be open, beginning in April, to accommodate early season camping through the opening weekend of upland bird season, depending on the weather.

A full service Marina provides fuel, boat and slip rental, as well as boating, fishing and camping supplies. (Apr. 1 - Oct. 31).

DAY USE

The new Waconda Visitor & Education Center is a must see. The Center's highlights include Native American history, the Waconda Springs, history of the Solomon River Valley, and construction of the dam. The building is open seven days a week from Memorial Weekend to Labor Day Weekend and by appointment during the offseason.

The Osage Area has a reservable group shelter and a swimming beach. The Waconda Trail is currently being developed. The Pawnee Overlook provides shoreline fishing, wading, primitive camping, picnicking, and an excellent view. A modern, handicap-accessible fish cleaning station (open Apr.-Oct.), is located at the east dump station. The Chautauqua Fishing Pond offers easy fishing access for individuals with disabilities and children and this pond is stocked with trout in the winter. (Special creel and length limits are in effect.) Kids should check out the new playground in Kanza with a large sandbox nearby. Cawker City Park offers a nine hole artificial green golf course with a second nine holes for the endurance golfer.

throughout the park. Several limited special hunts are also offered. Special hunt drawings are conducted in late summer. Contact the area office for more information.

WILDLIFE

The park is also managed to attract and hold wildlife. Pheasant, deer, waterfowl, and numerous nongame species (including eagles during the winter) can be seen

CAMPING

With three campgrounds providing 120 electrical hook-up sites, all with water, and more than 300 primitive sites, there's plenty of room for both tents and RVs. Some areas receive minimal maintenance and service except during peak use times. Boat ramps in Kanza and Osage offer excellent lake access and ADA courtesy docks. For RVers, the park has two dump stations and a full service marina that is open April through October. Select facilities are open year-round, including: utility hookups in Kanza and Cheyenne Campgrounds, primitive campgrounds, frost-free hydrants, trails, vault toilets, and the Hopewell Church.

New concrete camppads with secure tie-downs, water, and 50 amp electricity are available in all campgrounds.
